

catalog
site
articles

Español | 中文 | Tiếng Việt
my account
get a library card
contact us | help

- August 5 - The Library Catalog, My Account, and many online services will be unavailable starting at 8AM (more details)

- Collections
- For You
- Services
- Events
- Learn
- Interests
- Locations
- About

Author Event: Transcending Gangs: Latinas Story Their Experience

Select Language + - =
 Powered by Google Translate text size

How do gang-involved girls get out of gangs? Based on her recently published book, Transcending Gangs: Latinas Story Their Experience, San José resident Liliana Castañeda Rossmann details the girls' journey in and out of gangs in Santa Clara County. Including excerpts from interviews with gang-impacted and gang-involved Latinas, the talk highlights various reasons that girls give for joining a gang, the pathways to leave the gang lifestyle, as well as community efforts to support them.

About the author:

Liliana Castañeda Rossmann is Professor of Communication at California State University, San Marcos. Her research and teaching interests are in storytelling by Mexican migrants, especially as it pertains to identity development, communication theory, language and social interaction, interpersonal and intercultural communication, and conflict, mediation, and dialogue.

Location: King Library \(Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Library\)

Room & Floor: Room 225/229; Second Floor

Preregistration required?: No

Date Time

Thursday, July 18, 2013 - 3:30pm

Add to Google Calendar How?

Browse Events by:

- Library Branch
- Popular Topics
- Age Group
- Language
- o Today's Events
- o All Events
- o Search Events by Keyword

Donate & Volunteer | City / SJSU Partnership | SJSU Library | Site Map | © 2013

